OUR CLIENTS

ABOUT THE PLACES

Nankana Sahib - Nankana Sahib is a city and capital of Nankana Sahib District in the Punjab province of Pakistan. It is named after the first Guru of the Sikhs, Guru Nanak, who was born in the city and first began preaching here. It is the most important religious site for the Sikh religion.

Gurdwara Janam Asthan - Baba Guru Nanak Dev Jee, the founder of Sikhism and the first of the ten Sikh Gurus, was born in a village known as Talwandi Rai-bhoe, the present Nankana Sahib. His birth is celebrated worldwide as Guru Nanak.

Kartarpur - Kartarpur is a town located, in the Shakargarh Tehsil, Narowal District in Punjab, Pakistan. Located on the right bank of the Ravi River, it is said to have been founded by the first guru of Sikhism, Guru Nanak, where he established the first Sikh commune.

Gurdwara Darbar Sahib Jee – It's also known as Kartarpur Sahib Jee. It is built on the historic site where Guru Nanak Jee settled and assembled the Sikh commune after his missionary travels.

Gurdwara Shaheed Ganj – The Gurdwara Shahid Ganj Singh Singhanian, also known as Gurdwara Shaheedganj Singh Singhnian, is a historic Sikh gurdwara at Naulakha Bazaar in Lahore, Pakistan, which marks the site where over 100,000 Sikh men and women lost their lives in the 18th century.

Gurdwara Choona Mandi - The gurdwara is located in the Chuna Mandi Bazaar in the Walled City of Lahore, near the Lahore Fort, and Begum Shahi Mosque. The shrine is located along the Shahi Guzargah, or "Royal Passage" that began at Delhi Gate, and terminated at the Lahore Fort.

Gurdwara Dera Saheb – It's located in Lahore, Pakistan, which commemorates the spot where the 5th guru of Sikhism, Guru Arjan Dev, was martyred in 1606).

Hasan Abdal - Hasan Abdal is a city in the Attock District of Punjab Province in Pakistan, located 40 km northwest of the country's capital city, Islamabad. As home of the Gurdwara Panja Sahib, one of the most sacred sites in Sikhism, It is an important pilgrimage destination. The city is also notable for its association with the 16th century Mughal Emperor Akbar.

Gurdawara of Panja Sahib – It's a famous Gurdwara located near Islamabad, Hasan Abdal. The shrine is considered to be particularly important as the handprint of the founder of Sikhism, Guru Nanak, is believed to be imprinted on a boulder at the gurdwara.

Khewra Salt Mines - The Khewra Salt Mines is located in Khewra, north of Pind Dadan Khan, an administrative subdivision of Jhelum District, Punjab, Pakistan. It is Pakistan's largest and oldest salt mine and the world's second largest. It is a major tourist attraction.

Located about 200 km from Islamabad and Lahore, it is accessed via the M2 motorway, about 30 kilometers off the Lilla interchange while going towards Pind Dadan Khan on the Lilla road. Khewra mine is about 945 feet above sea level and about 2400 feet into the mountain from the mine entrance. The underground mine covers an area of 110 km².
